Board of Directors

Auxiliary Sports Industry Role

Role: Brings real-world experience from the sports industry to support CFL competition teams - examples include sports medicine and athletic training, equipment management, sports broadcasting, and sports technology.

Authority: Auxiliary, non-governance role with minimal liability; provides perspective and insight rather than formal control.

Role Type: Educational / Competitive - supports athlete-entrepreneurs and veteran founders, with no securities activities involved.

Commitment: Flexible and project-specific; can be tailored around seasons, events, or specific teams.

Perks: Resume enhancement, expanded professional network, recognition as an industry contributor, and priority access to future CFL opportunities and events.

"Athletes know how to compete. Veterans know how to lead."
